AWARD

Various awards based on interest earned on the fund.

DESCRIPTION

With a testamentary gift from Margaret Mary Burns, a fund has been established at the University of Manitoba to provide support to graduate students in social work. She requested that her gift establish an endowment or the "betterment of the Faculty."

ELIGIBILITY

Funds are dispersed equally between the priority list students (i.e., Aboriginal students, students with disabilities, immigrants, refugees, and visible minorities) and all other students. Bursaries supported by this fund are awarded to students who:

1. are enrolled part-time or full-time in the pre-MSW or MSW program;
2. have achieved satisfactory academic standing (i.e., have met the academic continuation requirements of the program); and
3. have outlined their financial need by way of a letter of request for funding submitted to the Graduate Program Committee.

Scholarships supported by this fund are awarded to graduate students who:

1. are enrolled part-time or full-time in the first year of the MSW or Ph.D. program in Social Work; and
2. were admitted to the current program with the minimum grade point average of 3.0.

Preference is given, firstly, to students who do not hold other scholarships concurrently and, secondly, to those who were admitted with the highest grade point averages.

CLOSING DATE

Applications for bursary assistance are considered throughout the year. Bursaries are awarded when needed.

SPECIAL BURSARIES FOR NORTHERN RESIDENTS

AWARD

Varies.

DESCRIPTION

The bursaries allow northern residents in need of financial assistance to engage in an educational experience at a degree-granting institution (college or university) anywhere in Canada. It is the objective of these bursaries to permit individuals with broad northern experience to undertake short-term or long-term college or university studies in fields of concern to them personally, as well as to other people in the North. It is expected that this educational experience will be flexible.

ELIGIBILITY

Such a program should outline in specific and manageable terms the individual's goals and objective, and be compatible with the time and commitment which the bursary holders will give as an undertaking. It is desirable that the recipient have a sponsor in the university to take responsibility for developing and directing the study program. It is hoped that successful applicants act as resource persons in the academic institution they are visiting, and that their specific knowledge of northern issues and conditions is made available to both students and staff.

Please arrange at least one, preferably two, references from your supervisors or advisors that evaluate our suitability and proposed research. Reference letters must be mailed directly by the referee. A reference letter can be sent with the application form if contained in a sealed and signed envelope.
